the Exchange Hotel, Hillsboro street.In one or two localities in the city the streets are measurably passable.Rev. P. A. Strobel, Bible Agent, will spend next Sunday in Chapel Hill.No criminal cases came before his Honor, Mayor Whitaker, yesterday up to 7 p. m.Right Rev. Thomas Atkinson, Episcopal Bishop of North Carolina, was in the city yesterday.A young lady who has had much experience as a teacher desires a situation.
See notice elsewhere.Well executed counterfeit notes are now flooding this section. Keep a sharp look out for them.The Edenton street Methodist Church is to have a new pulpit. The old one was taken down yesterday.Geo. W. Stanton, Esq., an ex-member of the House of Representatives from Wilson, was in the city yesterday.Go to Miller & Nelson's front basement, Metropolitan Hall, and try their celebrated Massey & Co's cream ale.The property belonging to the Literary Society at Weldon is advertised for sale—see notice. This property embraces stores renting for some $700.The clothing of a small colored girl, living in eastern extremity of Eastern Ward, caught fire yesterday morning, and she was painfully burnt before the fire could be extinguished.Read the three columns of advertisements inserted by Messrs. C. W. Grandy & Sons, of Norfolk, Va. These gentlemen understand business and the manner of pleasing the Editor.Subscribers to both the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS continue to come in daily. We are thankful to our many friends in different portions of the State that are laboring so zealously for us.The advertising columns of the News evidence an increased interest in our paper. Persons desiring to give information to the public can find no better medium than our columns.Raleigh seems to be suffering with a regular billiard mania. Little fellows whose heads scarcely tower above the rim of the table are seen in hand talking learnedly about good "Caroms," &c.We had the pleasure yesterday of greeting, in our sanctum, our co-laborer in journalism, E. R. Stamps, Esq., the handsome and talented young editor of the Tarboro Enquirer. Mr. S. was in our city as one of the attendants at the marriage of Mr. Scott and Miss Atkinson, elsewhere noticed. He left Tarboro, perhaps. At any rate, westward the Star of Empire took his way, "and he followed."HYMENEA!—The marriage ceremony between C. H. Scott, Esq., of Ky., and Miss Mary M., eldest daughter of Rev. J.
M. Atkinson, of this city, yesterday afternoon, attracted a large crowd to the Presbyterian church. The church was filled to the extent of its capacity, and the elite of the city was present in large numbers. The decorations were tasteful and appropriate in every way, and when the train of elegantly dressed bridesmaids, six in number, swept up the aisle, the scene was in truth a beautiful and impressive one. The father of the bride, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, was the officiating minister. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left on the 7:30 p. m. train upon their bridal tour, bearing with them the congratulations and good wishes of their numerous friends.CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—Yesterday the 27th annual statement of this excellent Company was shown us by S. D. Wait, the General Agent of the Company in this State. The statement shows the healthy condition of the Company, and is an evidence that the finances have been carefully and successfully administered.The gross assets on the 31st of December, 1872, amounted to $34,930,141.13, while the liabilities were $29,797,053.
00, thus leaving a surplus of $5,133,088.
13. The increase of assets during the year 1872, amount to $2,957,739.47.
The Company has the reputation of being one of the staunchest in the country, and certainly has in the person of Mr. Wait, a most efficient and experienced agent.A SWINDLER AT LARGE.—A correspondent from Thomasville, Davidson county, under date of Monday, writes us that a man has lately been endeavoring to impose upon the good people of that section by passing under a false name. He claimed to be a son of Gen.
Wade Hampton, but his real name is thought to be Garland Jones. He dresses well, appears to be near 27 years of age, has dark hair, is dark complexioned, has blue eyes and light mustache. We learn that the same individual was lately in Warrenton, but was exposed and left that region. Let him be watched.FINE MOUNTAIN BEEF.—Mr. W. R.
Crawford will have at his store to-day some excellent mountain beef. Call and see it.THE "CHAMPION HOUSE MOVER." See the notice elsewhere of this invention. It is destined to become of general use.

TESTIMONIAL TO COL. HICKMAN.—On

Tuesday evening the members of Hickman Lodge, No. 1, Good Templars, assembled at their Hall on Wilmington street for the purpose of taking leave of Col. J. J. Hickman, the founder of the Lodge, who was on the eve of departing for his home in Kentucky. The attendance was extremely full and the hall was handsomely decorated, with flags, evergreens, wreaths, mottoes, &c.
At 7 o'clock N. B. Broughton, W. C.
T., called the Lodge to order. A committee was appointed to repair to the residence of Rev. Dr. Pritchard and escort Col. Hickman to the Lodge room.
The committee soon performed the duty assigned to it. Col. Hickman then addressed the Lodge in an eloquent and feeling manner, and concluded his remarks by presenting the Lodge with a very handsome silver pitcher as a token of the interest he felt in its success and welfare of the members.Rev. Dr. Pritchard on behalf of the Lodge accepted the beautiful gift in remarks well suited to the occasion.At the conclusion of Dr. Pritchard's remarks, Rev. A. W. Mangum, on the part of the Lodge presented to the distinguished guest a magnificent gold watch and chain. The presentation speech was conceived in the best of taste and happily delivered. The response of Col. Hickman was a neat and happy one.It was met and proper that the Good Templars of this city should give some expression of their appreciation of the great and sacrificing labors of this gentleman, for he has certainly been a zealous and able and indefatigable worker in the cause of temperance in this State as well as elsewhere. Col. H. has the confidence and esteem of all who are so fortunate as to form his acquaintance.RALEIGH.—The Raleigh of to-day is as unlike the Raleigh of fifteen years ago as New York now is unlike Baltimore. In making this assertion it must not be understood that allusion is made to the external appearance of the place.
Reference is made to the rapid increase of business, and the consequent enterprise of her business men. Before the war and for some time after its close, there were but few business houses here that had any trade of importance outside of the corporate limits of the town.
How is it to-day? We have numbers of houses which command a large and increasing wholesale trade. Country merchants in this and adjoining counties are fast realizing the fact, that the large part of their supplies here as cheaply as anywhere else, besides being saved large freight bills and being put to the expense and inconvenience of a long journey North. A few years ago but a few hundred bales of cotton found its way to this market during the year. Now the daily receipts are counted up by the hundreds. This healthy state of the business of our community is evidenced in the numerous stores and dwellings which are being erected in every direction, and the rustle upon the streets is in striking contrast with the slumberous aspect which rested at one time upon the city and its surroundings.At an early day we propose to have something upon this subject better than this mere mention, and hope to be able to give some statistics which will prove of interest to our readers.A SONG FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY.— We publish by request the following song for St. Patrick's Day:

THE IRISHMAN.

The savage loves his native shore, He bought race the soil and all the air—Then will may Erin's sons adore An Isle which nature formed so fair!What flood reflects a shore so sweet As Shannon great, or pastoral Bann?
And who a freeman's eye can meet So generous as an Irishman!His hand is rash, his heart is warm, But principle is still his guide:
None more repents a deed of harm,
And none forgives with nobler pride!He may be duped, but won't be dared, More fit to practice than to plan,
His party cause he never shares,
And spends it like an Irishman!If strange or poor, for you he'll pray, Or guide to where you sate may be—If you're his comrade, while you stay, His cottage holds a welcome for you!What flood reflects a shore so sweet
As Shannon great, or pastoral Bann?
And who a freeman's eye can meet
So generous as an Irishman!By honor bound, in woe or weal, What ere she bids, he dares to do: Try him with bribe, it won't prevail—He'll prove him in the field of war true!He seeks no safety for his post, Where'er he be in dangers, van,
And in the field of battle he is lost,
It won't be for an Irishman!MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE INSANE ASYLUM.—The Supreme Court Board of Directors of this institution held their first meeting yesterday at 10 o'clock at the Asylum.
Messrs. Whitaker, M. Argo, C. L.
Harris, W. R. Myers, Dr. E. B. Haywood, J. W. Hood, Col. G. W. Brodie, Col.
J. P. Parrie, R. C. Badger, Henry Walter, John Stanton and G. L. Walton were present. Wesley Whitaker was unanimously elected President. An election of officers was gone into with the following result:Dr. Frank Fuller was re-elected Assistant Physician; J. W. Huggins, was chosen Steward, vice James H. Moore, and J. C. L. Harris was selected to fill the office of Treasurer in the place of Col. W. E. Anderson. The rest of the officers of the institution were all re-elected. Messrs. Whitehead and Ramsey were the only members of the Board absent. Messrs. Argo, Badger and Brodie, col., were chosen as the Executive Committee of the Board.M. B. L. A.—The 47th regular meeting of the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association will be held in the Court House on Friday evening, the 14th instant. Members can pay their dues to the undersigned on or before the day of meeting. Delinquents will be fined as prescribed by the by-laws.
WM. SIMPSON,
Secretary.(1) Pure and mellow! Century Whisky!

REMOVAL OF AN EFFICIENT OFFICER.

By the election yesterday, by the Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum, of Mr. W. F. Huggins as Steward of that institution, Mr. James H. Moore retires from that position. Mr. Moore was Steward of the Asylum under Dr.
Fisher for a number of years, was removed by the Republican administration in 1868, but was again given the position in 1870, and has ever filled it with entire satisfaction, proving a most faithful and efficient officer. We learn that Mr. M. will at once connect himself with the North Carolina State Life Insurance Company. Success to him wherever he may go.J. A. LEACH, Esq.—This gentleman, until recently Steward of the Deaf, Dumb & Blind Asylum, is the senior member of the firm of J. A. Leach & Co., Manufacturers of Shoes, Thomas-ville, N. C. Mr. Leach will in future devote his entire time and attention to his business at Thomasville. The quality of the work turned out by this establishment has gained an enviable reputation in the State. Mr. L. as an officer of the Deaf and Dumb Institution was faithful and zealous in the discharge of his duties, and his industry and administrative ability will sadly be missed in the institution.FIRE AT RIDGEWAY, N. C.—Yesterday morning, at about 9 a. m., the extensive steam saw mills, spoke and handle factory of Messrs. Huey, Hicks & Co. were discovered to be on fire, caused by a spark from the engine, and in less than an hour that splendid property was in ashes, valued at $20,000; but little insurance, proving a great loss to the proprietors, throwing a great many operatives out of employment.
The loss will be a source of great inconvenience to that whole community.NEW MUSIC.—We are indebted to L.
Branson, Bookseller, for several new pieces of sheet music. Falling under the Shakespearean anathema, when we say that the pieces are of the instrumental persuasion, and are called Sallie's Waltz, Cyprie Mazurka and Betty, we have told all we know about them. We have taken it for granted that all of them are magnificent compositions, and take great pleasure in recommending them to the favorable consideration of the musical public.BAPTIST FAIR.—This Fair closed last night, having continued through two evenings and attended with quite fair success, as we learn that some four or five hundred dollars will be realized, which will go towards liquidating the debt incurred in building the Pastor's Home. The crowd in attendance last night was good, and we are indebted to the ladies in charge for courtesies shown us.PAINFUL AND DISTRESSING ACCI-DENT.—Our Greensboro' correspondent in his letter this morning, gives an account of the serious accident to Rev.
Wm. Barringer, Presiding Elder of the Hillsboro' Circuit, and brother of Hon.
D. M. Barringer, which occurred at Greensboro' a few days since. We trust the distinguished divine will speedily recover from his injuries.BIG SHOW.—Yesterday W. H. Crawford, the well known butcher of this city, received from Catawba county a couple of beavers which would have attracted attention in a Baltimore cattle show. They weighed something over 2000 pounds each, and were decidedly the largest and finest cattle we have ever seen in this section of the country.CONFIRMED.—Our last night's dispatches state that the U. S. Senate has confirmed the nomination of W. W.
Holden as Post Master at Raleigh.

NOON DISPATCHES.

The Gladstone Ministry Defeated—Resignation of the Prime Minister.LONDON, March 12, 3 A. M.—The House of Commons to-night, after a protracted debate, rejected Mr. Gladstone's Irish University bill. The result of the division was announced as follows: For the bill 284; against it 287; the majority against it 3. The announcement of the vote caused great excitement, and the House adjourned until Thursday.LONDON, March 12, 2 P. M.—Gladstone waited on her Majesty, Queen Victoria, at Buckingham Palace at noon to-day to tender his resignation. It is probable that Mr. Disraeli will be summoned to form a new ministry.LATER—LONDON, March 12.—The scene in the House of Commons last night when the defeat of the Ministry on the Irish University bill was announced, is indescribable. The excitement in the gallery and on the floor was intense, while the opponents of the measure indulged in tumultuous cheers over its rejection. Among the distinguished persons in the strangers' gallery, which was crowded during the debate, were the Prince of Wales, Princess Louise and Prince Christian.
Scottish and Welsh members supported the bill. Catholics were unanimous in their opposition to it. After the announcement of the result, Gladstone arose and said: The vote just given is certainly a grave character, as the House never wishes to continue its deliberations when the existence of the Government is in doubt. I move an adjournment until Thursday. The motion was carried.In consequence of the late hour at which the result was reached, editorial comments of the London morning journals are meagre and restrained.The Irish University bill did not receive the vote of a single conservative member of the House of Commons. Forty-seven liberals, of whom thirty-six were Irishmen, voted against the bill. Fifteen members of the House, including Dr. Isaac Bull, member for Limerick, were absent. Forty members participated in the debate. Right Hon. John Bright, Jacob Bright, his brother, and the Marquis of Lorne supported the Government.

New Hampshire Elections.

CONCORD, March 12—2 o'clock A. M.
Returns from 141 towns show a net loss for the Republicans of about 900.
There is a probability of no election of Governor by the people. No figures on Congressional vote can be given, as they have not been returned. The Democratic candidates are elected from each of the three first districts; E. A.
Hibbard from the first, Samuel N. Bell from the second and H. W. Parker from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also a majority in the Senate and Council.2:30 A. M.—Returns from 145 towns give Straw, Republican, 27,476; Weston, Democrat, 24,459; Blackmer 863; Mason 503. The Republican gain is 1,023, and Republican loss is 1,937. The remaining 90 town gave last year, Straw 8,488; Weston 9,038. This defeats a choice by the people.In the city election Jno. Kimball was re-elected Mayor by a large majority.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—There was a run on the Washington City Savings Bank yesterday, growing, it said, out of the threat of the Comptroller of the Currency to withdraw the charter for technical violations of the law. The bank yesterday paid seventeen hundred of its three thousand depositors, and it well fortified this morning. There is little or no excitement about other banks. There are probably fifty colored people in the Freedman's Savings Bank but there is no excitement.

MADRID, March 12.—The assembly yesterday definitely sanctioned the bill introduced by the government, suspending the sittings and convoking the constituent Cortes on the first of May.Senor Martos, President of the Assem-

Escape of Captain Jack.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Captain Jack, of the Modocs, appears to have out-generaled the Peace Commissioners, and by the soldiers it is thought he has manoeuvred to get into the country east of the seat of war, where for 100 miles no cavalry could follow, and if he escapes to the Pitt river country he will find plenty of cattle.

Says the Charlotte Observer of the 11th instant:

"Trains are now running upon the Air Line Railroad from Charlotte to 13 miles west of Spartanburg. The road is nearly all graded, and as soon as the bridges can be built, the track will be laid from several points at the same time, viz: from Spartanburg West; from Greenville East and West; from the Blue Ridge Railroad East and West, and from Gainesville, Ga. It is expected that the road will be completed in June or July.

The Sentinel states that the track of the Air Line Railroad has been laid to within a short distance of the Pickensville Camp Ground, by Colonel Ames, the contractor. At this point, there is a mass of rock which will require at least three or four weeks time to remove. Then the track will be laid at once through that country."

From the Wilmington Star, of the 11th instant, we learn the following particulars of the recent murder in Richmond county:

"A week ago last Saturday, during a drunken frolic at a point between Sand Hill and Rockingham, Richmond county, in which four white men and a colored man by the name of Jim Wooten participated, a difficulty arose between the parties, in the midst of which the latter individual was struck on the back of the head with a stick, which resulted in his death. The four white men were arrested and yesterday three of them were lodged in the jail at Rockingham. The fourth seized a favorable opportunity, while the train was only making 8 or 10 miles an hour, to effect his escape, saying as he leaped from the coach, 'Good-bye, boys, I'm off.' The train was stopped and a party was sent in pursuit of the fugitive, but they subsequently returned and reported that he could not be found. Our informant did not know the names of the parties arrested for the murder."

GREENSBORO, N. C.

GREENSBORO, March 12, 1873.

Messrs. Editors:—We had a little sensation last week in the shape of a fight between two sewing machine agents, which, after going to court, resulted in each one having to pay $30.

Eli Glass died last week, having been confined to his bed only a few days with the measles.

The Sheriff has arrested nearly all the demi-mondes in our town and confined them in jail. It should have been done in the long ago.

Hon. Wm. A. Smith, Congressman, spent a few days in our city this week. He was lively as usual, and is a whaling piece of humanity.

Sam Franklin has been traveling from house to house North of this place frightening the women in the absence of their husbands, by telling them he was Henry Berry Lowrey. At one house he told them if they didn't give him some supper he would "go for them."

In the meantime a little negro boy was despatched over to a neighbor's. A double-jointed man took him by the collar, led him to the door and told him to "go."

He got. Sam then called on a good old Presbyterian Minister, told him if he would let him stay all night he would pay him well for it; that he had plenty of money, and would pay his way whenever he went. After supper Sam asked the preacher if he held Family Prayers. The preacher told him he didn't make it a habitual practice, but did once and awhile, whereupon Sam requested the preacher to allow him to hold prayers on that occasion. He read a chapter and prayed as though he was a licensed preacher. The next morning when he went to pay for his night's lodging, lo! and behold! he had lost his pocket book, money and all.

That good old Presbyterian preacher put Sam down, then and there, as a first-class swindler. Sammy journeyed on till he landed on Rockingham's soil, and finally took up lodging in the county jail, where, I hope, he will stay until sent to the Penitentiary.

When he lands there, His Excellency, the Governor, will please let him serve out a reasonable time. He—Sam, not the Governor—has annoyed the people in Guilford and Rockingham no little since his riddance is a good one.

I was in hopes of having another article on fighting, but the white chap—"poor trash" and negro boy—not much better, wouldn't fight worth a cent.

Rev. William Barringer, one of the best and most eminent ministers of the Methodist Conference, met with a serious accident in his journey to a fatal, accident Tuesday morning last, by falling off the building of the new Methodist College. He was on an inside scaffold of the second story, inspecting the College building, when a mislaid plank gave way, causing him to fall a distance of some thirty feet.

He fell on his right side, breaking his right thigh, spraining his wrist, knocking several teeth from his mouth, bruising his face badly, mangle the flesh terribly on the right side, and injuring him internally to an extent that it caused blood to flow freely from his nose and mouth. Four or five of the best physicians were in attendance upon him Tuesday morning, and pronounced his recovery doubtful. He was senseless for several hours, but in the evening he showed symptoms of animation, and it is believed, will recover.

Mr. Barringer is well known throughout the State, and his many friends will regret learning of his misfortune. He has been located here for four years as pastor of the Methodist church, and is now presiding elder of the Hillsboro district. He will not be able to discharge his duties in the coming round of quarterly meetings.

A couple of mules ran away Tuesday with a boy, throwing him overboard, and scattering shavings and "helmet-skeiter," the wagon being loaded with that commodity.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.—I saw a temple reared by the hand of a man, standing with its high pinnacles in the distant plain. The streams beat upon it—the God of Nature hurled his thunderbolts against it—Revelry was in its halls—the gay, the happy and the beautiful were there. I returned, and the temple was no more; its high walls lay scattered in ruins; moss and wild grass grew there. The young and the gray that revelled there had passed away.

I saw a child rejoicing in his youth—the idol of his mother, the pride of his father. I returned, and the child had become old—trembling with the weight of years, he stood the last of his generation—a stranger amidst the desolation around him.

I saw an old man standing in all its pride, on the mountain—the birds were circling on its boughs. I returned—the oak was leafless and sapless, the winds were playing at their pastime through its branches.

"Who is that destroyer?" said I to my guardian angel.

"It is time," said he. "When the morning stars sang together in joy over the new-made world, he commenced his course. And when he shall have destroyed all that is beautiful of the earth—plucked the sun from his sphere—veiled the moon in blood; yea, when he shall have rolled heaven and earth away as a scroll; then shall an angel from the throne of God come forth, and with one foot on the sea and one hand on the land, lift up his hand towards Heaven eternal. Time is, Time was, but Time shall be no more!"

FIELD MARSHAL VON MOLTKE is as arbitrary as an author as he is as a general. He is engaged in writing the history of the Franco-Prussian war, and it appears, that various army officers have published in the meantime the details of certain operations in which they personally took part. This does not suit the old lion, and he tells them that they are presumptuous, and know nothing about the matter they have undertaken; that they, being employed in only one part of the field, or in only one department of the army, can comprehend but a detached portion of the whole scheme of the campaign, and have no right to judge; and have, beside, fallen into numerous errors. In fine, he lectures them as if they were school boys and their schoolmaster. Hereafter he wishes all such works to be submitted to him, so as to be corrected, and not to conflict with his book, the publication of which he has commenced which he continues to rapidly complete, and which does justice to all the branches of the service, and to all the different army corps. The old general is doubtless proud of his last and crowning campaign; but he has taken, what will appear to Americans, a strange course to secure the uniformity of history as to its merits.

California is preparing a rich treat for Barnum in the shape of a boy only 15 years old, who has already been raised to the height of 6 feet 3.
